

ENCUENTRO CON

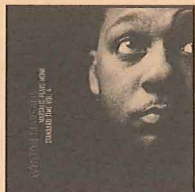

El firmante y presunto entrevistador del eminente epicentro del jazz and beyond holandés reciente y actual no puede llamar a estas líneas una entrevista puesto que están basadas en la taquigrafía de un servidor, todo pulgares mientras intentaba transcribir y elaborar otra pregunta al tiempo, una pequeña jam a dúo con Breuker, donde también las fotos de Juan G. Nieto jugaban un papel de puntuación rítmica. Hora, ocho y media de una gélida noche de lluvia. Lugar, cuartel general y hogar de Breuker, en Oosterpark, un barrio periférico de la capital. Grabadora, misteriosamente averiada minutos antes del encuentro. En fin, si pueden encontrar sentido en estas notas, sean bienvenidos al mundo musical de

WILLEM BREUKER...

Sin respiro

Aquella noche, Breuker se enfrentaba a una actuación de su Kollektief, lo que sumado a su papel esencial en la organización del Dutch Jazz Meeting y la dirección del sello BvHaast, por no citar la preparación del inminente festival del propio Kollektief, lo convertía en víctima mansa -¿resignada?- del estrés. Quizás un rasgo del carácter nacional que materializó un territorio en donde sólo existía el mar. Breuker por otro lado atribuía el surmenage al encargo de composiciones para la Italian Instabile Orchestra y un proyecto local para la creación de un concierto para chelo y orquesta. El que empezó como improvisador e intérprete de saxo es compositor que conjuga las estéticas del jazz y la clásica (y algo más). De vuelta a aquella noche, la perspectiva de la actuación estimulaba al saxofonista Willem Breuker, quien señaló que los temas que tocasen serían decididos por la banda justo antes del comienzo de la actuación que habría de concluir la serie de catorce del festival de un fin de semana.

Haciendo memoria

El recuerdo evoca un panorama bien distinto al comienzo del viaje. "Hacia 1964, en los primeros años, no había nada, ni la posibilidad de estudiar improvisación o música fuera de los límites de una conservadora institución llamada conservatorio". En aquella época, Breuker se las vió con el vacío institucional, el desprecio y el aislamiento. Pero en Holanda empezaban a perfilarse una serie de nombres de artistas rabiosamente independientes del influjo exterior. No fue un picnic ciertamente, sino una labor de fe, inflamada en el encuentro con Peter Brötzmann y Evan Parker durante el festival de Baden Baden. A partir de entonces, el futuro sería menos incierto. A principios de los años setenta empezó a trabajar como compositor con el fin de cumplir con peticiones específicas, y la rapidez y la eficacia fueron desde entonces características de su dedicación. Esta experiencia como escritor creativo le franqueó el paso al mundo de los compositores, muy en particular a los americanos Gershwin, Monk y Ellington; el alemán Kurt Weill; el francés Erik Satie y el italiano Ennio Morricone.

Kurt Weill y Morricone

"Ennio Morricone representa la inteligencia de comprender que las cosas sencillas, un simple par de notas, no tienen por qué ser fáciles. Morricone es comparable con Berio, de cuyo tipo de experiencias él procede. Hablo de la música camerística y sinfónica. Por supuesto, últimamente se ha vuelto repetitivo". También sobre el autor de La Opera de Tres Centavos tenía Breuker las ideas claras. "Me interesa dar a Weill un tratamiento netamente europeo. Creo que conozco bien a Kurt Weill. Incluso hice un programa de radio de cuarenta y ocho horas sobre su vida y música. Es uno de los más grandes compositores alemanes de todos los tiempos, y en América fue uno de los nombres importantes del musical de Broadway".

Producir discos

BvHaast es un pequeño sello discográfico de crecimiento lento pero consistente. Breuker, ahora con la gorra de productor independiente, nos confía que el record de ventas de Music for Baal (7.000 copias), ya ha sido batido con un disco sobre el mismo compositor, titulado Kurt Weill, que combina el respeto a los originales instrumentales con el Kollektief con las canciones a cargo de Loes Luca y los solos vehementes de Breuker al soprano y Alex Coke al tenor. El disco presenta por primera vez el musical Marie Galante. Quizás recordando la atmósfera teatral que impregna la música del alemán, Breuker comenta su satisfacción "con la cantante, menos convencional y más expresiva que las especialistas, y con la banda, que se encuentra muy a gusto tocando partituras". Se dispara la alarma. Los minutos de la entrevista se han escurrido en el reloj de arena. Nos pertrechamos contra el frío y la humedad de un Amsterdam en Navidades. En la BimHuis, al otro lado de la ciudad, nos esperan entre otros Greetje Bijma, Han Bennink, Guus Janssen y el Willem Breuker Kollektief para seguir definiendo qué es esa cosa intangible propagada en el aire que ahora se empieza a motejar dutch jazz.
